Spigot
Life is for the limning
Brush aside less painterly thoughts

I Suppose
I guess if there is one thing to say
It should come with some sarcasm

Around and Around
Flipped and taped at one end
Perennial movement along the same path
Möbius strip compensation

When My Penmanship Changes
The curves and angles now different
The m's and c's and f's
Worldly new
Allowed, but not encouraged
Natural, not induced

Form
He could chuck the Charlie off a horse
I don't listen to ordinary voices

Wait For It
Clocks for some
Time for others
The speed of things
And patience are brothers

Stare
If I stared long enough
To unsee what I have seen
If I stare long enough
To see what I cannot unsee
Who then will you see?

Dream Pick
Regret creates problems for your past
For me a guitar is a pencil

Cedar Forest
The onset of night
Brings its own things
From the deepest places
Of heaven

Art should not be
Of sadness
Unless sadness is all that one has
